

Carvers' Round the Wrekin 2022 - Terms and Conditions

GENERAL

- These booking terms and conditions apply to everyone who takes part in the Carvers' Round the Wrekin sportive and those who attend as spectators. These terms and conditions contain important information regarding participation and upon entry you agree to and accept these terms and conditions.
- All participants, staff, volunteers and spectators agree that they are happy for their names and any footage or photographs taken by or on behalf of Compton Care during the event to be used to publicise this and/or future events. Should special dispensation be required, it is the responsibility of the participants to inform the organiser of such requirements.

REGISTRATION

- Riders aged 13-16 must be accompanied around the route at all times by a responsible adult, who has also registered for the event. One adult can accompany children under 16 and the children will be their full responsibility throughout the event.
- All riders under the age of 18 on the day of the event must have parental/guardian consent.
- You must be 16 or older to take part in the Carvers' Epic Route.
- Compton Care reserves the right to cancel, postpone or change any of the routes where this becomes necessary due to circumstances beyond our control.
- Compton Care reserves the right to alter the start time. You will be notified by email with notification of any changes.
- If we have to change the date of the advertised event due to circumstances beyond our control, e.g. extreme weather or alterations by the venue, we will endeavour to rearrange the date with the venue and transfer your place to the new date.
- Should alterations to the planned activity be necessary to ensure safety of our participants, we will give prior notice either before the event or on arrival to the event of any alterations made. This includes any changes to the start time and routes.

SAFETY

All participants entering the event do so at their own risk. In no event shall Compton Care (including staff, volunteers and event support staff), the event, its suppliers and/or the venue be liable for any injuries, loss or damages whatsoever.

- All three routes for this event take place on public roads. Where possible, we will make you aware of any traffic issues or road conditions that may affect the routes. Compton Care and the route organisers cannot be responsible for general road conditions which may be poor due to weather, maintenance etc.

- For your safety and enjoyment of the event, we ask that you follow the routes laid out. You should be aware that when riding on a public highway the function of marshals is only to indicate direction and that you are responsible for deciding if the movement is safe.
- You agree to abide by the British Cycling Regulations for non-competitive cycling events and understand and agree that you participate in the event entirely at your own risk, that you must rely on your ability in dealing with all hazards, and that you must ride in a manner which is safe to yourself and others.
- As far as we are aware, there are no planned roadworks that would interfere with the participation of this event. We will endeavour to inform you of any roadworks on the event day.
- You agree to wear the wristband you will be sent in your Registration Pack. This should hold emergency contact details of someone who can be contacted should you be involved in an accident or be injured.
- If you are unable to complete your chosen route in full, you should let Event Control know if possible. Alternatively, if safe to do so, please stay on the route and a broom wagon will pick you up.
- This event is open to all levels of physical activity. Participants make the decision to take part and must be satisfied that this activity is suitable for them as individuals. Neither Compton Care nor its affiliates can be held accountable for aggravation to illness or injury sustained due to participation in this activity.
- Participants are recommended to seek advice from their medical practitioner prior to taking part in this event and make provisions to ensure their safe participation.
- Participants are asked to come equipped with the necessary clothing, medication and nourishment that is required to enable enjoyable and safe participation in this activity.
- It is the participant's responsibility to come suitably dressed for the event. The event organisers take no responsibility for loss or damage to any shoes or clothing or other personal possessions.
- British weather is known to be changeable, so be aware that conditions may be bright and sunny or cold, wet and windy. Please dress appropriately for the weather on the day. We suggest you bring a change of clothes for the journey home.
- Any personal belongings brought to the event are left entirely at participants' risk. There is no designated bag drop area at this event.
- There is designated parking for this event at the venue. We ask for a £1 per car donation to Compton Care for this facility. The car park will not be manned and all cars are parked at the owners' risk.
- Alcohol will be on sale at Dudley Kingswinford Rugby Club. The organiser reserves the right to disqualify anyone who is under the influence of alcohol or drugs, whether consumed prior to commencement or during the event. This is done in order to prevent risk to the safety and enjoyment of yourself and others.

- Compton Care reserves the right to update its terms and conditions in relation to the Carvers' Round The Wrekin sportive event at any time prior to the event. All participants will be provided with any updated terms and conditions in advance of the event as part of the event day information or on the day of the event.
- First aid will be available at the event village and on the route.
- The venue will be open from 7am on 22nd May and will close at 7pm. It is assumed that all participants will have left the venue and car park by this time.
- Broom wagons and marshals will be on the route until 5pm.
- Food stations are available on each route. Each rider will be allocated one food bag and water will be available. You should bring your own supplies of particular items you prefer.
