INTRODUCTION TO CHALLENGING CONVERSATIONS AROUND LIFE LIMITING ILLNESSES

As members of the Black Country Palliative and End of Life Care Group, we are delighted to be providing this free End of Life and Palliative Care education program.

This free 1.5 hour online session will serve as an introduction to initiating conversations and addressing different types of discussions. It will look at the top types of conversation around emotions, grief and anger, and will also include advance care planning.

Who should attend?

This training is commissioned by the Black Country Integrated Care System and is designed for all primary care staff in the Black Country (Dudley, Sandwell, Walsall and Wolverhampton).
